

Your new home...

Renting vs. Buying

Everyone needs a place to call home sweet home. You have two options when choosing a new home: rent or buy. The main difference between renting and buying is who gets your check—a landlord or the bank. Weighing costs will be a big part of your decision, but there are other facts to consider.

Advantages of Home Ownership

Fact: Interest rates are still at historic lows.

Fact: Renting deprives you of large tax breaks.

Fact: A home is a leveraged investment using other peoples' money.

Fact: Real estate continues to be an excellent return on investment.

Look at how much you spend on rent in just a few years!

Monthly Rent	3 years	4 years	5 years	6 years
$1100	$39,600	$52,800	$66,000	$79,200
